GOLDEN WEDDING IN SCOTLAND.

Spaulding street, this city;

The golden wedding of Mr. John Vatt, retired blacksmith, Clatt, and of irs. Watt was celebrated on Satur y at the residence of the worth; mir's son-in-law, Mr. Henderson, Hard ate, Clatt. A large and representative gathering, including many rela-tives, assembled to do honor to Mr. ond Mrs. Watt, who are held in the highest esteem by all who know them. Tove Thomas Burnett, parish minister, ennethment, who was present, tool prominent part in the proceedings ad made a very interesting and fitting speech. The rev. gentleman alluded to the long period he had known Mr. and Mrs. Watt, expressed his high appreciaon of their personal worth, integrity and kindliness, and, on behalf of friends present and absent, conveyed to friends present and absent, conveyed to fine respected pair the most hearty congratulations and good wishes. In the course of the evening Mr. and Mrs. Watt were presented with a purse of sovereigns, the gift being handed to them by Mr. Robert Gail, Aberdeen, brother of Mrs. Watt (with whom were absociated Mr. George Gall and Mr. John Gall), in very happy and suitable terms. At a later stage a number of loasts were proposed, the health of Mr. and Mrs. Watt being duly pledged, and Remember the name-Doan's-and absent friends were very cordially remembered. The evening passed most pleasantly. Mr. George Christie, Aber-deen, was a host in himself with the humorous and appropriate recitations which, to the great delight of the company, he supplied, and his singing was also much appreciated.
